

Bob Bilbrey
Booz Allen Hamilton

Mr. Bilbrey has more than 32 years of diverse financial accounting, strategic planning and business forecasting (domestic and international), operations management, human resource management, benefits administration, and ERP computer systems experience.

Mr. Bilbrey joined Booz Allen Hamilton in October 2001 where he is currently the Economic and Business Analysis (EBA) Program. Mr. Bilbrey is responsible for overseeing work which includes sound program and project management services, financial management and analysis, internal controls, balanced score card, business process reviews and improvements, financial/accounting SAP systems analysis, and financial systems design in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Bilbrey's experience in consolidating multiple financial operations and business locations into shared services, in commercial environments, has proven beneficial to successful shared services center transitions, best practices and lessons learned. Mr. Bilbrey previous experience as a Line of Business Controller and was responsible for financial reporting and consolidations, strategic planning and forecasting (domestic and international), operations analysis, sales and distribution analysis, and overall financial administration for operations.

Mr. Bilbrey is married to Joanne and lives in Medina with three daughters - Erin, Mary and Beth. He has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from The Ohio State University and a Master's degree in Business Administration from Ashland University.