

Kevin T. Jacques

Chair of Finance
Baldwin-Wallace College

Kevin T. Jacques is the Boynton D. Murch Chair in Finance at Baldwin-Wallace College. Prior to joining the faculty at B-W, Dr. Jacques spent 14 years as an economist with the U.S. Treasury Department in Washington, D.C. where he was responsible for advising Treasury and George W. Bush Administration officials on policy issues regarding the U.S. banking and financial system. During his tenure at the Treasury Department he advised over a dozen foreign countries on matters of U.S. banking and financial policy. In 1994, he served on the President's Working Group on Financial Markets examining systemic risk in domestic financial markets. Dr. Jacques is a frequent contributor to local, national, and international media and his commentaries on the financial crisis and financial reform have appeared in numerous outlets including National Public Radio (NPR), Associated Press, Bloomberg Financial News, American Banker, Business Week.com, CBS News.com, Forbes.com, Crain's Cleveland Business, the Cleveland Plain Dealer, and dozens of newspapers throughout the United States. He holds a Ph.D. in Economics from Michigan State University.